ARTICLE VI. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- Section 1. There shall be a Board of Directors composed of the past Commodores (Staff Commodores) providing they remain members in good standing and attend one Board meeting annually, the Commodore, the Vice Commodore, the Rear Commodore, the Fleet Captain, the Port Captain, the Secretary, the Treasurer and the most recent past Commodore. Additionally, two Directors shall be elected by the General Membership and shall serve for a period of one year. The Commodore shall be the Chair of the Board of Directors.
- Section 2. The business and property of the Club shall be controlled by the Board of Directors, and they shall exercise all powers, except such as are herein expressly reserved to the members of the Club. They shall meet at least quarterly at such time and place as fixed by the Commodore or the Board of Directors. They shall have the power to regulate the Club as they deem necessary and do all things necessary for its proper management. Five (5) Board Members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. They shall keep minutes of their meetings. They shall not have the power to make the Club liable for any debt beyond that, which is presently in reserve in the treasury, or beyond the income of the preceding calendar year, whichever is less, without the approval of the regular voting members at a General Membership meeting or a Special Membership meeting called for such purpose.
- Section 3. The Board of Directors shall prepare the budget and submit it in final draft to the Officers of the Club and the General Membership for approval for the following year at, or before, the last General Membership meeting of the present year.
- Section 4. The Board of Directors shall have the power to adopt new rules and regulations they deem appropriate for the Club and to amend or change rules and regulations they deem necessary or appropriate for the Club. Voting on these issues may be conducted; at Board of Directors meetings, or via email. If (when conducting an email vote) the vote becomes stalled, the Commodore may cancel the email vote and table it for the next Board of Directors meeting.
- Section 5. Past Commodores shall be given the title Staff Commodore. To maintain their status as a Board member they shall attend at least one Board meeting annually.
- Section 6. Resignation from the Board shall be in writing and received by the Secretary. A Board member may be dropped for excess absences from the Board if the member has three unexcused absences from Board meetings in a year. Excused absences are defined by a notification to the Secretary of an expected absence before a scheduled meeting, and will be recorded as such. If the Secretary is not notified in advance of a scheduled meeting, then the absence will be recorded as an absence. A board member may be removed for other reasons by a three-fourths vote of the remaining directors.

ARTICLE VII. COMMITTEES

- Section 1. The Board of Directors shall have the power to appoint and dissolve any standing or special committees they deem appropriate to serve the Board for the proper functioning of the Club.
- Section 2. A Finance Committee of at least two members shall be appointed by the Board of Directors. The Finance Committee shall be responsible for auditing the Treasurer's accounts at the close of the fiscal year and reporting to the Board of Directors and at the next General Membership meeting.
- Section 3. Any committee not reporting directly to an Officer shall report to the Board of Directors.
- Section 4. All committees, either standing or special, shall report its plans for action to the Board of Directors who shall approve such plans prior to their implementation.

ARTICLE VIII. ELECTIONS

- Section 1. All elections of the Club shall be by ballot or hand count at the discretion of the presiding Officer. A simple majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to make a choice, except as provided herein. Only Voting Members in good standing may vote.
- Section 2. The Annual Election of Officers shall be held at the last scheduled General Membership meeting of each year. The voting members of the Club shall be asked to elect a Rear Commodore, a Fleet Captain, a Port Captain, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and two Directors from a list of candidates prepared by the Board of Directors. Additional candidates may be nominated from the floor by the membership.
- Section 3. On January 1st, following the elections, the Vice Commodore shall become the Commodore, and the Rear Commodore shall become the Vice Commodore. The newly elected Officers shall then assume their respective elected positions.
- Section 4. Should the Commodore or any position below Commodore become vacant that position shall be filled by the Officers below that vacant position moving up. The Directors, Secretary, and Treasurer may or may not move up at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall fill the vacant position (Port Captain, etc.), temporarily by appointment, until the next scheduled election. At the next scheduled election the voting members shall vote for Officers, as above, in addition to the vacant position.

ARTICLE IX. MEETINGS

- Section 1. Meetings of the General Membership shall be held at least twice a year, once in the last quarter, at a time and place designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall meet at least four times a year, once in each quarter, as scheduled by the Commodore or the Board of Directors.
- Section 2. A special meeting of the Board of Directors may be called any time it is deemed necessary by three (3) or more members of the Board. If a special Board meeting is to be called, every member of the Board on Kaua'i shall be notified at least 24 hours in advance by telephone and e-mail of the time, date, and subject to be discussed.
- Section 3. The order of business at the meetings of the Club shall be as follows:
- a. Reading and Approval of Minutes of the previous meeting.
 - b. Officers' reports.
 - c. Committee reports.
 - d. Unfinished business.
 - e. New business.

f. Adjournment.

Section 4. The proceedings of Club meetings shall be governed by the rules contained in the current edition of “Robert’s Rules of Order, Newly Revised”, so far as its provisions are applicable and are not inconsistent with the by-laws of the Club.

Section 5. The General Membership shall be given thirty (30) days notice by US mail and/or email of the exact time and place of the General Membership Meeting. The General Membership shall have a voice from the floor for all matters concerning Club business.

ARTICLE X. FINANCE

Section 1. Each year at or before the last scheduled General Membership meeting the Board of Directors shall present to the General Membership for approval, a schedule of initiation fees and dues for all classes of new membership for the following year to be effective January 1st.

Section 2. The dues schedule for all classes of existing members shall also be prepared by the Board of Directors and presented to the General Membership for approval at or before the last scheduled General Membership meeting. In no case shall the dues schedule for existing members be higher than the dues schedule for new members.

Section 3. The Board of Directors may exempt any member from payment of membership dues. The Board of Directors may remove any such exemptions at any time. Any such exemptions or removals shall be reviewed and voted upon at the next scheduled General Membership meeting.

Section 4. “Funds and Property”. The aims and purposes of the Club shall be to advance the interests of active participants in sailing and boating of all kinds. All of the funds of the Club which are provided or allowed by these by-laws raised by compulsory levy upon any or all of the members, or as income raised from the sale or lease of property of the Club, shall be used in the furtherance of sailing and boating of all kinds. It shall be unlawful to expend or employ any of these funds or to pledge the credit of the Club, solely for the purpose of social amusement or entertainment. This section shall not be construed to prevent the Club from buying, selling, renting, or hiring such real or personal property that would be a benefit to the members, owners, or lessees of vessels of the Club’s fleet as practical yachtsmen. It shall not prevent the use of the Club’s premises or property for social observances conducted by its members, out of funds provided for other than above, and with the consent of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Section 1. “Expulsion”. Should any member of the Club be deemed guilty of gross misconduct, charges may be prepared against such member in writing, signed by a member of the Club, and directed to the Secretary. The Secretary shall direct such charges to any member of the Board of Directors. That Director shall confer with at least two other Directors, and they shall decide if a special meeting of the Board of Directors is in order. At the special meeting or at the next scheduled regular meeting of the Board of Directors, the Directors shall hear the charges and if they so deem shall schedule a hearing or drop the charges, by majority vote. If a hearing is deemed necessary by the Board of Directors, the accused shall be advised of such at least seven (7) days in advance, be sent a copy of the charges, and be invited to attend and answer such charges in person. The accused may answer such charges in writing. The Board of Directors shall review the charges, listen or read the reply of the accused and vote to: defer any action by majority vote of the quorum of the Board of Directors; sustain the charges and expel the member from the Club by a two-thirds vote of the quorum; or dismiss the charges and consider the matter closed by a majority vote of the quorum of the Board of Directors.

- Section 2. “Right of Appeal”. The expelled member may appeal to the General Membership by obtaining a petition with 50% of the signatures of the voting members in good standing of the Club, within thirty (30) days of the vote of the Board of Directors, and request that their case be heard by the General Membership at the next General Membership meeting. If such a petition is presented in a timely manner, the Board of Directors and the expelled member shall present their cases to the General Membership and the members present shall vote by a simple majority on a secret ballot to uphold the decision of the Board of Directors or reinstate the membership of the member. The ballots shall be counted at the meeting. If no petition is received by the Secretary within the thirty (30) day time limit the matter shall be closed.
- Section 3. “Reprimand or Suspension”. The Board of Directors may for any violation of the Club rules and regulations, misconduct at the clubhouse or at a Club function, reprimand or suspend any member from the privileges of the Club for a period not to exceed sixty (60) days.
- Section 4. A member of the Club having been reprimanded, suspended, or expelled from the Club shall be at once notified by the Secretary with a statement of that fact and the reasons thereof. An expelled member shall forfeit all rights, title and interest in and to the property of the Club and shall immediately return their membership card to the Secretary.
- Section 5. “Reinstatement”. It shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the General Membership present at a regularly called meeting of the Club, after a one year period of time, to restore the membership of any member who has previously been expelled.

ARTICLE XII. AMENDMENTS

- Section 1. Members who wish to propose amendments to the by-laws shall present their request to the Board of Directors for consideration. A two-thirds vote by ballot of the Board shall enact the proposed amendment for consideration by the voting members.
- Section 2. These by-laws may be amended by two-thirds vote by ballot of the voting members.
- Section 3. The exact text of the by-laws amendment proposed by the Board of Directors shall be sent to each voting member by US mail and/or email at least 14 days prior to the next meeting at which the amendment can be voted upon. The exact text shall be in the form of a copy of the affected current by-law article underlined on that copy.
- Section 4. Members may propose changes from the floor to any amendment under consideration at a Club meeting.
